

WHO WE ARE

New York City's Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center is a one-of-a-kind organization that empowers community members to lead healthy, successful lives. We proudly celebrate our community's diversity and advocate for justice and opportunity.

WE OFFER:

- Health and wellness programs
- Arts, entertainment and cultural events
- Parenthood and family support services
- Connection to community and resources

Take advantage of everything The Center has to offer.

Catch up with friends in our Think Coffee café and outdoor garden, or get online at the David Bohnett CyberCenter. Learn about the host of meetings and activities happening here every day. For a culture fix, drop by the Bureau of General Services – Queer Division, one of NYC's only queer bookstores and cultural event spaces. And don't forget to visit the iconic Pat Parker/Vito Russo Center Library and The Center's National History Archive.

RENTAL SPACE FOR MEETINGS AND EVENTS

Our home is your home. Every year, The Center hosts thousands of activities in our wide variety of rooms and spaces available for rent, offering full-service support to ensure that your event is everything you envision it to be. From dedicated tech staff to room setup assistance, we provide the attention to detail that makes every gathering at The Center a memorable one.

The Center is an affordable, ideally-located venue, whether you're planning a celebration, discussion group, performance or training seminar. Our team has been helping community members bring their events to life for more than 30 years. If you are looking for a vibrant space that celebrates our community and its diversity for your next gathering, get in touch today by emailing meetingspace@gaycenter.org.

The Center has been, and will always be, the cornerstone of New York City's LGBT community. It is a place where people meet and make connections, a support system for those in need and an invaluable resource.

Our organization, services and programming evolve in response to our community's needs. So too does our building, which offers a modern, welcoming home for the more than 6,000 people who visit us each week.

Want to socialize, make new friends and have fun? Need a little support? Or are you just looking for a unique, LGBT-friendly environment in New York City?

WELCOME TO THE CENTER.
